

2012 GLOBAL UNDERGRADUATE EXCHANGE PROGRAM (GLOBAL UGRAD)

The Global Undergraduate Exchange Program (Global UGRAD Program) provides qualified undergraduate students with scholarships for one semester or one academic year of U.S. study in a non-degree program. Students will be enrolled full-time in an undergraduate program in the United States and will live on the university campus.

Students must complete at least one year of undergraduate study in Haiti before they begin the Global UGRAD program. In addition, students must continue their undergraduate studies in Haiti after completing the Global UGRAD program. They may not stay in the U.S. for degree study.

Scholarships are available for all academic fields except fields of medicine (Nursing, Pharmacology, Veterinary, or other clinical field of study.)

Students aged 24 or younger may apply.

Students must be proficient in English (minimum TOEFL score: 500). English language training may be available for selected students.

Students accepted into the full academic year programs will travel to the U.S. in the fall 2012. Students accepted into one semester programs will travel in the fall 2012 or in the winter (January) 2013.

Application Deadline: November 10, 2011
